

ITALY IN A NUTSHELL

Official Languages	Italian; two bilingual regions: Alto Adige, German and Italian; Valle d'Aosta, French and Italian
Capital City	Rome
National Holidays	April 25th (Liberation Day); June 2nd (Republic's Day)
Religious Holidays	November 1st (All Saints); December 8th (Immaculate Conception)
Form of Government	Parliamentary Republic
Administration	15 Regions and 5 autonomous Regions: Friuli-Venezia Giulia; Sardegna (Sardinia); Sicilia (Sicily); Trentino-Alto Adige; Valle d'Aosta
Gross Domestic Product (in current prices) ¹	EUR 1,521 billion (2009)
Value added per Sector of the Economy	Services: 73.1 percent; Industry & Energy: 18.8 percent; Construction 6.3 percent; Agriculture, hunting and fishing: 1.8 percent (2009) ¹
Exports ¹	EUR 291 billion (2009)
Imports ¹	EUR 296 billion (2009)
FDI Flows ²	Inflows: 30,538 million USD; Outflows: 43,918 million USD (2009)
Size ³	301.340 km
Neighboring Countries	France, Switzerland, Austria, Slovenia; Enclaves: Holy See (Vatican City), Republic of San Marino
Population ⁴	60,3 million inhabitants (1-1-2010)
Largest Cities ⁴	Rome (2.8 million), Milan (1.3 million), Naples (963 thousand)
Time Zone	Central European time (CET) with European daylight savings time
Currency	Euro (1 € = 100 Cent)
Phone Dial Code	39
Internet TLD	.it
Power Voltage	230 V, 50 Hz

¹ Source: Eurostat

² Source: UNCTAD, World Investment Report, 2010

³ Source: Istat, Rapporto Annuale 2009, Contabilità nazionale

⁴ Source: demo.istat.it